

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Lawrence Vogltanz Jr.,
Appellant,

v.

Stacy Arleen Stinson,
Appellee.

Supreme Court No. S-17675

Order Returning Appellant's Brief for Corrections

Date of Order: 6/18/20

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-17-02011CI

Appellant's brief, filed on 6/9/20, is being returned for corrections based on the following reasons specified by the law clerk who reviewed the brief and excerpt for technical compliance with Appellate Rules 210 and 212.

No separate excerpt of record was provided. There are no cover pages for the opening brief and excerpt of record. In the argument sections of the brief that was provided, there are no citations to the bates numbered record or on appeal or an excerpt of record when factual assertions are made.

Any factual assertions should have a citation to the record on appeal or excerpt of record where that factual assertion is supported by the record; citations should be made after the assertion in the form of a citation to the record on appeal [Rec. [Bates Number]] if an excerpt of record is not being prepared, or citations should be made after the assertion in the form of a citation to the excerpt of record [Exc. [Page Number of Excerpt Document Begins on]].

The documents listed in appellant's "Document List" should be compiled into an excerpt of record, and should then be cited to using [Exc. [page number of excerpt]]; e.g. [Exc. 12]. Trial court record documents need to be separate from the brief and arguments.

A sample appellant's brief and instructions on preparing a brief and excerpt are being provided with this order. The appellant's brief doesn't have to be handwritten or perfectly follow the format of the sample brief, but it should be rather close in format. The pages of written/typed argument could be placed in between page 3 and 4 of the sample brief for as many typewritten pages as necessary as long as the brief doesn't exceed 50 pages. The Appellant could then renumber the pages of the remaining sample brief.

The Appellant may inquire in the Appellate Clerk's Office if he would like to see an excerpt of record that has been filed and accepted by this Court.

The original and one copy of the corrected brief, and the excerpt, with proof of service, are due on or before 7/1/20.

Entered under Appellate Rule 102(f).
